

Workshop
on the occasion of the
Shipbuilding, Machinery & Marine Technology (SMM) 2008 Trade Fair
“Environmental protection and innovation – opportunities for the shipbuilding industry”

Organisers: Federal Ministry of Economics and Technology in cooperation with the Community of European Shipyards’ Associations (CESA)

Hamburg, 23 September 2008, 11:30 – 14:00 hours

- 11:30 hrs Welcoming remarks and opening speech
Dagmar Wöhrl, Member of the German Bundestag, Parliamentary State Secretary at the Federal Ministry of Economics and Technology, and German Government Coordinator of the Maritime Industry
- 11:45 hrs Welcome address
Kommer Damen, Chairman of the Community of European Shipyards’ Associations (CESA)
- 11:50 hrs Welcome address
Jaako Eskola, President of the European Marine Equipment Council (EMEC)
- 11:55 hrs Introductory presentation
“Transforming the challenges of climate and environment protection into economic opportunities”
Dr.-Ing. Hermann J. Klein, Chairman of the Executive Board of the German Society for Maritime Technology and Executive Board Member of Germanischer Lloyd AG
- 12:15 hrs Presentation
“Sustainable shipbuilding within the European context – the Dutch approach”
Maria van der Hoeven, Minister of Economic Affairs, Netherlands
- 12:30 hrs Panel discussion
- Dr. Herbert Aly, Executive Board Member, ThyssenKrupp Marine Systems (TKMS)
 - Frederico J. Spranger, Chief Executive Officer of Lisnave Estaleiros Navais S.A.
 - Dr. Stefan Spindler, Executive Board Member, MAN Diesel SE
 - Ingar Skaug, Group Chief Executive Officer of Wilh. Wilhelmsen ASA (to be confirmed)
 - Moderator: Lutz Beukert, Handelsblatt
- 13:20 hrs Concluding remarks
Dagmar Wöhrl, Member of the German Bundestag, Parliamentary State Secretary at the Federal Ministry of Economics and Technology, and German Government Coordinator of the Maritime Industry
- 13:30 hrs Lunch Buffet